Auntie Antics Ken and Mary McKenzie

Auntie Antics Series, Book 1

This fun and colorful book celebrates diversity and inclusion. Each Auntie has a distinct personality. You'll meet Aunties Pasta, Body, Depressant, Climax, and Anti Viral and Anti Social, who are twins. In this lighthearted book, you will join the Aunties as they search of an adventurous puppy. Will they find him, or will he evade their search?

"Ken and Mary McKenzie present a playful chronicle of a family searching for their adventurous pup. Young readers will get a kick out of spotting the dog in his hiding places before the "Aunties" do! This is a celebration of extended family!"

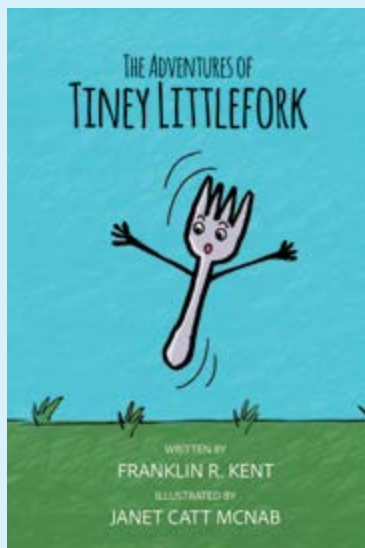

—Renee Garrison, author

KEN AND MARY MCKENZIE reside in Florida and spend their time with horses, and prison volunteer work.

Proceeds from book sales will go directly to their charity, Lean On Me USA

The Adventures of Tiney Littlefork Franklin R. Kent

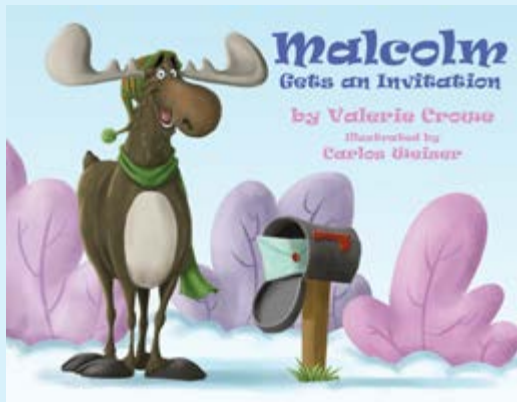

This engaging and colorful tale featuring Tiney Littlefork will delight your child's imagination. Damaged and feeling neglected and alone, Tiney Littlefork finds new purpose. Bent, but not broken, he is overcome with sadness. Yet, through it all he finds new purpose.

FRANKLIN R. KENT started his "writing career" at an early age, when several of his grade school teachers recognized his talent, saying that he was a natural-born writer.

Frank writes poetry, short stories, and children's books. He currently serves his community, working for the City of Clearwater, Florida.

Malcolm the Moose Get's an Invitation

Valerie Crowe

Malcolm the Moose series, Book 1

Not all friends fit into a standard pattern of what a friend should look like, and Malcolm the moose certainly is not standard. However, two of his best friends are determined that size should not stop Malcolm from being included in any fun party plans. Ingenuity and imagination help to keep Malcolm upright so that he and all his friends can enjoy the party.

"Very positive and happy book. Great artwork!"

—Louise Glass

"Love this book."

VALERIE CROWE is an ex-pat who moved to Florida from the UK ten years ago. Living in the European environment with its rich history for the first part of her life has helped Valerie with the background of some of her stories, especially her Precious Knights series. As she has often been reminded by her four grandchildren, stories need to be written down if they are going to be told and re told correctly to different generations.

How Pickleball Saved Ollie Otter Lawrence Blundred

Ollie Otter Series, Book 1

Introducing Mr. and Mrs. Pickleball. How Pickleball saved Ollie the Otter, captures the youthful heart with its themes of adventure, fairness, inclusion, and love. Both deep and though provoking, while filled with adventure and fun, children of all ages will enjoy reading about the cute animals as they discover their self-worth.

What is Pickleball? Where did it start? How do you play Pickleball? All of these questions are answered in this first book in the Ollie the Otter series.

LAWRENCE (LARRY) BLUNDRED is a retired financial advisor. Prior to that, he served as marketing/sales director for Skyline Chili and JTM Food Group. He resides in Cincinnati, Ohio. Larry and his wife, Margo, traveled to Bainbridge Island to personally gain background for his books. He and his illustrator played football (one year!) at York High School (Elmhurst, IL) and reconnected in 2022 at their high school reunion.

A Golden Fairy Story

K.M. Clark

Elif the fairy doesn't fit in at White Willow School. She is an orphan with no siblings, or parents, and doesn't know where she came from. She only has one friend who understands her not-so-girl-fairy ways. She would rather be outside communicating with the bees than sculpting flower petals like the other girls. No matter what she does, she can't seem to fit in. Finally, she can't stand being the odd one out and decides to head out in search of her origins. Only Trouble knows where that will lead her.

"I found this supposedly children/young adult boom hard to put down. Ms. Clark pulled me in with her descriptions of the fairies at their school and the almost caste like attitudes of some. Elif is an orphan who is seeking her heritage. I can't wait for the next one!"

—Mavis Labounty

K. M. CLARK, writer/photographer, and dreamer extraordinaire, is from Panama City Beach, FL. She draws inspiration for creative works from the beauty of North Florida. Her photography has been displayed in numerous galleries throughout north Florida, including Tallahassee City Hall, Panama City Center for the Arts, FSU Museum of Fine Arts, and Lemoyne. She is currently a full-time writer and photographer in Tallahassee, FL.

Swamp Archeologist

D.W. Powell

Dead End Kids Series, Book 1

While exploring the deep, dark swamp at the end of the road, eleven-year-old D.W. Patton discovers clues to a long-forgotten robbery gone bad. A gravestone with no skeleton and buried treasure sets the scene for an exciting adventure.

"Despite being gone from Florida for almost 50 years, I grew up in "Old Florida", and can fondly recall the wonderful images described by Mr. Powell from my childhood. Although this book was probably written for a younger crowd, this senior citizen enjoyed it immensely."

—Jeff Johnson

DICK "DW" POWELL grew up on a dead end street that really did end in the swamp. It was a marvelous place to explore and use your imagination.

He is an author, speaker, storyteller and radio & TV personality. When he is not writing or speaking, you will find him out in my kayak, canoe, or wandering some path amount the trees.

Wild Bill Pack Mule of Camp Carlin

Debbie Freeman

Wild Bill Series, Book 1

Wild Bill has earned his reputation. The newest pack mule at Cheyenne Army Depot in the late 1800s is seemingly untameable! Wild Bill bucks, brays, and kicks his way through training.

Will his trainer be able to calm him down or will he lose his position on the mule train?

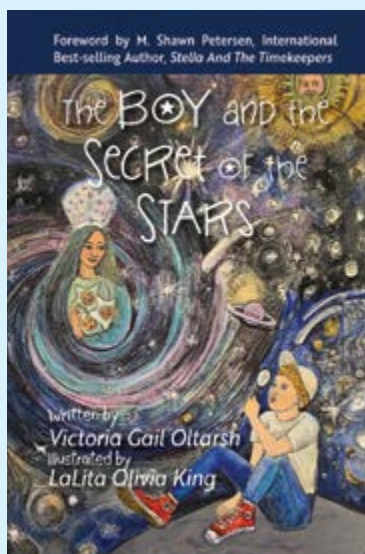

"I liked reading Wild Bill: Pack Mule of Camp Carlin because Deb Freeman does a masterful job telling a story of real places and events, with well-placed words on colorful and fun illustrations. I'm definitely recommending to the museum board at F.E. Warren Air Force Base that we carry this book!"

—Dan Lyon, author & researcher of Wyoming's forgotten history

DEBBIE FREEMAN is a former elementary teacher and author of the primary companion book, Wild Bill, Do You Want to Be a Pack Mule? Formerly from Wyoming, she researched Wild Bill and the Army pack mule system developed by Brigadier-General Crook while volunteering at the F. E. Warren Air Force Base museum. She now resides in northern Florida with her husband and still takes yearly ventures back west to keep the Wyoming frame of mind (and snow ski)!

The Boy and the Secret of the Stars

Victoria Gail Oltarsh

Our universe is amazing! In this series you will encounter several different characters entranced by the wealth of knowledge it embodies. This series is well-written and richly illustrated by a mother, daughter team. You will enjoy these glimpses into outer space fantasy mixed with facts about the universe we live in.

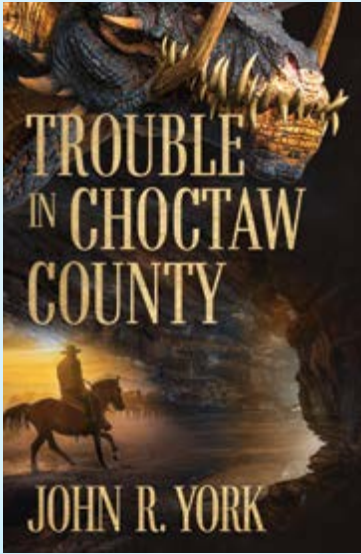

"... This book with its stunningly beautiful illustrations captures the magic of old that I find often missing from many modern day tales. The story is fun and creative while being a light read with appeal to not only children but to parents and other adults as well. It's a compelling and fun read. Uplifting with powerful and much needed lessons. Highly recommend."

—Steven King

VICTORIA GAIL OLTARSH is a native New Yorker who grew up playing in Central Park while visiting her grandparents who lived across the street. Now a mother and grandmother, she feels most comfortable in the delightful company of children. Victoria loves to encourage children how to find their inner voice expressing themselves through the creative arts.

CHARITY SERIES

The Charity Series is a creation of Heaven's Divine Kiss. It is comprised of books that address various topics which can be challenging for young people to deal with, which adults often find too difficult to discuss with them. Topics include: abuse, abandonment, adoption, bullying, your life matters, death of a loved one, loneliness, and low self-esteem. This first book of the series deals with a need for a friend. It is designed to help young readers find hope and encouragement when they are feeling lonely and afraid

This eighth book of the Charity Series is a special edition in which Charity comes from Heaven to present the true meaning of Easter. She shares the experience of Jesus, including his birth, life on earth, his crucifixion and his resurrection. This story gives meaning to why Jesus came and what He accomplished through his death on the cross. Charity desires that every boy and girl recognizes the love that God has for them personally and that they would come to experience him too.

Stephanie White, wife, mother, licensed minister, former missionary with Cru, and teacher, has come to know God as Jehovah-Jireh, the God who provides. She graduated from Appalachian State University with a bachelor's degree in special education. White has spent 24 years as an educator in public schools.

In 2011, due to a sustained injury, she took an early retirement. She found herself humbled before God and the following day she received a check in the mail. She declared that to be her kiss from God.

In 2014 she took on the role as youth minister. White possesses a passion for communicating the gospel to people of all ages. This is evident through her six-year ministry with Campus Crusade for Christ.

The term kiss from God transformed her completely. Within weeks, she began to use what she had come to describe as her two fish and five loaves—the little talent that she had to write and draw—as an opportunity to create poetic messages and images that coincided with the theme, “Kisses from God”.

God has orchestrated her life with intention and divine purpose—to impact the hearts of young people for Him. Her prayer is that God use her written work, Little Brown Boy, I Am Divinely Beautiful, and Kisses from God, as ministry tools to convey His love to children near and far. In addition, her prayer is that every reader will experience the relational God, she treasures, both intimately and personally, as He bestows heaven-sent kisses on their daily lives.

She currently resides in McDonough, Georgia with her husband, Jerry, for 31 years and is a mother of four. She also has one treasured grandson.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY CURRICULUM

The Charity Series Bible Study Curriculum is comprised of eleven lessons that come directly from the book series. These topics are generally hard for parents and other adults to discuss with children in light of their complexities. The lessons are designed to allow Charity, who has been heaven sent, to administer God's love, comfort and care, as she assists children in dealing with these challenging subjects.

Throughout each lesson, children will experience a personal God who is in tune biblically and personally to every situation that they may encounter, regardless of the difficulties of the subject matter. Each lesson is packed with inspiring scripture that speaks to the heart of each subject, a relatable character from the book series, engaging and fun-filled activities, daily applications and something for parents to ponder.

lessons include:

Lesson 1 Friendship: A Need for a Friend

Lesson 2 Self-Esteem: Loving the Skin I'm In

Lesson 3 I Matter: Your Life Matters
